You said you would like to see:

- More information in regards to my child's progress at school and academic level
- Less homework
- More homework that does not depend on Teams
- Would be lovely to have parents back in school
- More after school clubs especially for children with SEND
- A new reward system to motivate all children
- More stretch and challenge for some of the children
- Give children permission to share their feelings, thoughts and ideas
- More help for children who need it
- Better and more timely communication with parents when things are happening and when things change e.g. no PE on a given day for some reason
- More regular parent-teacher meetings for children with SEN

Over the rest of this academic year we will provide a regular feature on the school newsletter on how we are developing and addressing the various areas.

A huge thank you to everyone who completed the questionnaire - your views do matter to us.
